THE LATE CHIEF BELT.

There was a well-attended meeting last night of the George Washington Birthday Celebration Association. The meeting was held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. It had been called to take suitable action in respect to the memory of the late Chief W. T. Belt, of the Washington Fire Department. Resolutions were adopted and President Julius Y. Williams, Vice President John H. Trimyer, and Mayor Frederick J. Paff were selected to officially represent the association at the funeral this afternoon.

The following was adopted by the association:

Whereas, we learn with deep regret of the death of Chief W. T. Belt of the District of Columbia Fire Department, therefore be it

Resolved, that in his demise this community loses a warm and active friend, and this association a hearty and co-operative supporter; one who was ever ready to lend a helping hand to the community in the hour of need and to the association on festive occasions.

Resolved, that in the hour of bereavement the family has the heartfelt sympathy of this association.

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the association, published in the Alexandria Gazette and a copy forwarded to the family of the deceased.

F. J. PAFF.

W. W. BALHNER.

R. M. GRAHAM.

Chief Paff and delegations from the active fire companies of this city also will attend the services. Mayor Paff has directed that the bells in the engine houses and the City Hall be tolled at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The Alexandria delegation left at 12:30 o'clock, and carried a handsome floral tribute which was placed on the grave of the dead chief. A number of other members of the Alexandria fire department as well as private citizens attended the funeral.

REVIVAL MEETING.

Evangelist Holcomb preached to another large congregation at the Methodist Church South, last night, taking for his text, Mark 10: 46-50. The preacher said: "A few nights ago I spoke to you concerning Jesus saving the richest man in Jericho, and now I will speak of his healing and saving the poorest man in Jericho."

The evangelist drew a strong picture of the situation, with his vivid description of the surroundings. He laid stress upon the blind condition of Bartimeus, saying that those who are blind in sin today are a thousand times worse off than the sightless man. He also laid stress upon the wisdom of the blind man, for "Jesus was passing that way for the last time" as he was on his way to Jerusalem, where he was betrayed and killed.

Tomorrow afternoon there will be a service for women and everyone of this class in Alexandria is urged to be present. These meetings, like those for the men, are the most interesting and helpful that are held during the evangelist's stay. The morning services will not be held from now on, all energy being spent upon the women's meeting and the service for the young people and children on Friday afternoon. There will be preaching again tonight at 7:30.

PRETTY WEDDING.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at the chapel of the Episcopal Theological Seminary last night when Miss Margaret Micon, daughter of Rev. Dr. Richard W. Micon, one of the professors at the Seminary, became the bride of Mr. John Monrore Daniel, jr., of Jefferson county, Va. The chapel, which was crowded with the friends of the bride and groom, was beautifully decorated with holly, running cedar, ferns, etc., and a bank of candles at the rear of the altar gave a most brilliant effect. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father and she was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Richard Micon. The groom's best man was his brother, Mr. William Daniel. The maid of honor was Miss Alice Laurie Crawford. The bridesmaids were Misses Janet Childs, Annie Daniel, Mary Hoff, Edith Houston and Beatrice Crawford and the ushers were Messrs. Oscar Randolph, Francis Carter, Thos. Nelson, Francis Daniel, Richard Williams and Paul Micon. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Dr. Micon, which was attended by the bridal party, after which Mr. and Mrs. Daniel left for their wedding trip.

AMUSEMENTS.

PRETTY CALENDARS.

This is the season when business men display their taste in pretty calendars. It is needless to say that the one gotten out for 1909 by the Robert Porter Brewing Co. is the same of good taste combined with good judgment in the rare selection of the object of admiration and the colors with which it has been put on the canvas. But there are others. There are so many pretty calendars this year that it would be impossible to mention all. The selection made by Mr. C. H. Zimmerman, the popular restaurateur, could not have been more appropriate, displaying, as it does, the neatest design and most exquisite taste, such as he is peculiarly noted for. And yet there are others—a man who shelters you from the winter's snows and the summer rains is just as particular about his selection as is the best of business firms. A look at the calendar of Mr. Thomas Waddy, the tinner and general store repairer will convince all that inasmuch as he is a good mechanic he is likewise a wise selector of a beautiful calendar.
